

Please keep the no call list as is. It should be everyone's right to decide whom they want calling them on their private home phone. It should not be public domain. Thank you.